MUST KNOW: St. Petersburg Description

Saint Petersburg was founded by Tsar Peter I on May 27, 1703, it was the capital of the Russian Empire for more than two hundred years (1713–1728, 1732–1918).

It is Russia's second largest city after Moscow with 5.132 million inhabitants, and the sixth largest metropolis in Europe after Moscow (15m), London (12.875m), Paris (9.638m), Istanbul (9.413m), and The Ruhr, (7.3m). Saint Petersburg is a major European cultural center, and an important Russian port on the Baltic Sea.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

PILLOW GIFTS RECOMMENDATION:

Souvenirs from Russia are your mementos from an adventure.

We are pleased to offer fine hand-crafted traditional
Russian gifts and souvenir items.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

OPTIONAL: Pillow gift for arrival: VODKA Collection sets

Vodka is one of the national Russian symbols and one of the things most associated with the country. Being the biggest consumer of this drink, Russia spread the vodka culture to other countries by producing some spectacular kinds of vodka.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

14:00 Arrival to Pulkovo Airport (SU6642)

Pulkovo Airport (IATA: LED, ICAO: ULLI) is an international airport serving Saint Petersburg, Russia. Pulkovo is the 3rd busiest in Russia after Moscow's Domodedovo and Sheremetyevo airports. A new terminal is located directly to the north of the Terminal 1 and contains 18 gates, it is capable of supporting up to 17 million passengers annually. The new terminal is easier to navigate, compared to most of the other European airports, and is the most aesthetically pleasing terminal in Northern Europe.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

Retro Buses Transfer from the airport to the point of detainment

Start your evening programme with some action and take a short tour on Soviet retro buses before dinner! This can ideally go with soviet themed dinner. We can invite actors to create this special historical atmosphere of the evening.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

Military Detainment on the way from the Airport

On the way from the airport the coaches will be stopped by the military black car and they will ask for passports of some people whom they are looking for (it could be the VIPs of the group) while passports will be collected in the hotel. KGB man give an order to follow them for checking the personal documents in the KGB office and ask the chosen people to leave the car and sit in the special Russian KGB cars (Upon request a transfer could be done with escort of the police car without stops).

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

Retro Car Transfer from Detainment point to Krasin Ice-Breaker

Transfer is usually a routine thing to do. Why do not add some action to your arrival and switch an airport transfer to Soviet retro car! We welcome you to enjoy transfer by the following retro cars:

1/ Chaika (GAZ) 13 – Chaika means gull, is a luxury “limousine” automobile from the Soviet Union made by GAZ Factory.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

Welcome reception on Krasin Ice-Breaker

The Krasin, the legendary Russian icebreaker, a landmark in shipbuilding history was built in Newcastle in 1916. The ship glorified herself in exploration of the Arctic, worked as a pathfinder on the North Maritime Route, and took part in a number of rescue operations.

Nowadays the Krasin stands at an anchor by Lieutenant Smidth Embankment, like the famous Aurora, and operates as a museum.

Ice Check-In at Krasin Ice-Breaker (Room Key & Bottle of Vodka frozen in Ice cube)

Looking for ideas to impress your client from the beginning of the trip? Let's do it during hotel check-in and make routine process into the interesting activities. When your guests arrive to hotel ICE CUBES (average size 20 x 20 sm) with guests' names will be waiting for them at reception.

Each guests will get small hammer to break the ice and get ROOM KEY that was frozen in advance.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

Afternoon Roof tour

Seeing the city from above is a must when visiting St. Petersburg. Since the mid 19th century local law has limited building height, with the exception of churches, to that of the tsar's Winter Palace (23.5 meters). Today, if you climb onto the roof of any six-storey building in the downtown, you'll be able to see the glorious St. Petersburg skyline and its major architectural gems.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

Traditional Russian dinner at Russian Vodka Room № 1

The restaurant was opened in September 2008 under the same roof as the museum of Russian vodka. The restaurant and museum are located in the center of the city next to St. Isaac's Cathedral in the historic building of the Hussars Regiment.

It is a typical restaurant offering traditional Russian cuisine. It is the only restaurant in the city that offers only traditional Russian dishes.

DAY 1 - 28th AUGUST 2020, FRIDAY

SURPRISE: Bread & Salt Ceremony before the dinner

Bread and Salt Ceremony is one of the oldest Russian traditions. When important, respected or admired guests arrive, they were greeted by young women in traditional costumes with a loaf of bread placed on a rushnik (embroidered towel). A salt holder or a salt cellar is placed on top of the bread loaf or secured in a hole on the top of the loaf.

The tradition originated as a folk custom in western Russia. As a sign of hospitality, when the emperor or empress visited their towns, merchants and gentry would present a loaf of bread placed on a round dish covered with an embroidered towel.
